

Continue Your Service to America

2010 SCHEDULE

10:00 am – 12:00 pm
1201 New York Avenue, NW
Penthouse Floor
Washington, DC 20005

- February 10
- March 10
- April 14
- May 12
- June 9
- July 14
- August 11
- September 8
- October 13
- November 10
- December 8

POINTS OF CONTACT:

Jayson Smith
202-357-8398
jayson.smith@dhs.gov

Kimberly Burney
202-357-8416
kimberly.burney@dhs.gov

Paul Plasencia
202-357-8251
paul.m.plasencia@dhs.gov

Announcing DHS Transition Support Workshops

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer's Diversity, Recruitment and Veterans Outreach program promotes the Department's commitment to being a model federal employer in support of providing transition training to Veterans and their spouses. This training will provide Veterans and their spouses with the knowledge and tips necessary to apply for jobs in the Federal Civil Service.

TRAINING OBJECTIVE

To provide transitioning service members and their spouses with detailed information on the federal hiring process and determining and applying for Veterans Preference.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Transitioning Service Members (Active/Reserve/National Guard)
- Spouses of Veterans
- Retired or Separated Veterans

WHAT CAN YOU LEARN FROM THIS TRAINING?

- Special Veterans Hiring Authorities
- How to Apply for Federal Jobs
- Federal Resume Tips
- DHS Mission and Job Opportunities

Register for this training at www.dhs.gov/veterans and selecting the Transition Support Workshop banner or by calling one of the points of contact on the left side of this flyer.

Reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Homeland Security

PROUD TO PROTECT